SPECIAL PLACE

What makes Trinity special?

“The people – present and past, young and old – they make the community of the church,” shared Lisa Lindholm. “Trinity is a place we all come together to put God in our heart and hold Him there to share with others.”

The place is crucial.

“We must create and maintain a safe place – for church and school families – so they can continue to be spiritually fed,” shared Travis Jansen, who is Trinity's facility director.

Much has been done – just in the past year - both interior and exterior.

There's more to come.

This past week, the removal and installation of new windows began in the north wing classrooms.

This week, resurfacing of the west parking lot begins. Resealing and painting the main parking lot is scheduled to be done in July.

Other summer projects include: Refreshing the boys and girls locker rooms – by the gym – with new paint and the removal of the showers. The removal of the sidewalk to nowhere, along with repairs to the ball field and other landscaping around the facility.

More refreshing facility details, along with a review of the upcoming spending plan, will be shared during Trinity's congregational forum on June 9 at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

UPCOMING HAPPENINGS

Trinity will be having a congregational forum on June 9 at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall, along with its annual voters meeting on June 23 at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.
