

MARCH 8-9, 2025

HIGHLIGHTS

WORSHIP SERVICE TIMES: 5 p.m. on Saturday. 8 a.m., 10:45 a.m. on Sunday.

WELCOME HOME

On behalf of Pastors Golter and Schilling, Trinity Lutheran would like to welcome you home—to God’s House. If you would like to learn more about Trinity, please include any questions you might have on your attendance card which can be found in the church pews. Attendance cards can be placed at the end of each pew or placed in the offering plate during the worship service. We would love to hear from you—and welcome the opportunity to connect with you.

PRAYER REQUESTS

If you are in need of prayers, please fill out the green Prayer Card located in the church pew racks. Cards can be placed in the offering plate. If you would like to meet with one of our pastors, contact the church office (563-323-8001) to set up an appointment.

LIVE-STREAMS

Trinity live-streams its 8 a.m. Sunday worship service and Sunday morning Bible study at 9:30 a.m.. You can watch the live-stream by going to YouTube and searching Trinity Lutheran Davenport Iowa. Our Trinity School chapel service also is live-streamed on Wednesdays at 8:30 a.m. on YouTube.

SHARING THE SAME MESSAGE

Members of Trinity’s High School Youth Group will be joining forces with more than 20,000 other teens from around the world this summer.

They all will be proclaiming the same message: Jesus is our creator and savior.

Trinity is sending 31 high schoolers and six adults to the LCMS Youth Gathering in New Orleans on July 19-23.

“This will be a life-changing experience for these students,” shared Kari Smith, who leads Trinity’s High School Youth Group. “We will spend the week growing in our faith, serving, singing and praying.”

Since 1980, the LCMS Youth Gathering has been held every three years. The gathering provides high schoolers the opportunity to come together as a community of God’s people to be encouraged in their walk with Jesus.

“The preparation for this trip is a long process,” Kari Smith shared. “It takes a lot of work to make it possible.”

Trinity’s Youth Group needs your support.

“We need prayer that our group grows in unity,” Kari Smith shared. “We need prayer for safe travels, and that the Holy Spirit uses this trip to impact us all in a powerful way.”

The group also is in need of donations.

So far, the group has raised $25,000 to help offset costs for the trip – but still is in need of about $15,000 more to cover the entire cost.

You can check out the table located in the entrance of the church to see how you can be involved.

You also can connect with Kari Smith for more details.

SUNDAY MORNING EDUCATIONAL HOUR

Trinity Lutheran offers two Sunday morning Bible studies and children’s Sunday School—each begins at 9:30 a.m. You can check out more details and room locations on the back page of the Highlights section.

SUNDAY MORNING STUDIES

Trinity offers two Sunday morning Bible studies. Listed are details and locations for each study. Both begin at 9:30 a.m. LIFELIGHT: LifeLight incorporates daily personal study, weekly small groups and a large presentation time. The study is led by Pastor Schilling and meets in the school library.

HOW IS THE CHURCH TO LIVE AND ACT: Pastor Golter is leading a study—in the Fellowship Hall—exploring the Book of Ephesians.

LWML ZONE RALLY

Trinity will be hosting an LWML zone rally on March 29 from 9 a.m. to noon. Wendy Sue will be the guest speaker. All ladies in fourth grade to adults are welcome. The cost is $5 for adults and $3 for students. Refreshments will be served. You can register by contacting Donna Welch at 563-322-2510.

SING BOLDLY TOUR COMING TO TRINITY

The Sing Boldly tour will be stopping at Trinity Lutheran on March 16. The youth choir and handbells - along with organist Paul Soulek - will be a part of Trinity's 10:45 a.m. worship service on March 16. The group, which is from St. John Lutheran in Seward, Neb., consists of 55 students and eight octaves of handbells.

TRANSFER THE BLESSINGS

We can face competing priorities when we think about planning our estates. Part of that tension flows from immediate needs versus long-term needs in our lives. In our culture, it is the "immediate" that receives the attention, resulting in us failing to plan for long-term needs. Your LCMS Foundation Gift Planning Counselor can meet with you, without cost, to begin thinking about the value of this long-range planning. For inquiries, contact Scott Radden, Senior Gift Planning Counselor, at (618) 977-4049 or Scott.Radden@lfn.org.

LENTEN SERVICES

Trinity will be having Lenten services at noon and 6:30 p.m. during the Wednesdays in Lent. The services will focus on Our Suffering Savior based on Isaiah 52:13-53:12.

LENTEN DINNER

The LWML will be serving a variety of soups and toasted cheese sandwiches on March 12, starting at 5 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.
